Minutes from December meeting were approved.

Treasurers Report-- League is doing ok on funds and should be able to make it until deceleration without borrowing from the capital improvement fund.

Don spoke about the beginning of Church League and Dr. Skokos. He passed away recently but was a founding member of Church League. Without him and his interests Church League might not have begun.

Old Business

Eddie presented a new roster form to have the parents sign.

Seconded by Alan Schwartz

Vote – 8 to 8 did not pass

Robert – proposed doing individual trophies instead of team trophies.

Change Article 10 section 17 to be:

Rule for commissioners to approve the waivers and not go to the executive committee unless an agreement between church commissioners cannot be made.

Current rule is:

Change Article 10 section 17 to be:

Any exception to these rules must be requested in writing and submitted to the Executive Committee for consideration.

If the request for exception is in regards to which church a player is going to play for, the waiver request must be sent to the league president and must be signed by both churches commissioners. The Executive Committee will make a decision for approval or denial if an agreement between churches cannot be agreed upon.

Seconded by Chris Bercher

Kevin Weakley – Rule change for Super Pee Wee to stop play once the lead runner is stopped and the umpire has declared the ball dead and called for time. Same as bambino.

Seconded by Robert Jetton

Motion to adjourn 6:42.
